

December 22, 2009

Club Members,

I could spend time talking about the Bengals and Panthers game, but decided not too today. Instead I thought it best to wish everyone a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Everyone best wishes this Holiday season. This is the season that makes everyone a little better, a better spouse, a better parent, a better sibling, a better friend; so let's all do our part and try and be the people we would like to be every day.

“Christmas in California”